NOTICE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY EXEMPTION

TO THE DEFENDANT(S):

Tennessee law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000.00) debtor's equity interest personal property exemption from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for yourself and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer.

If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for yourself and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer.

DOCKET NO.
JURY DEMANDED

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES

Plaintiff, complaining of Defendants, alleges and says:

I. INTRODUCTION & DEFINITIONS

1. All allegations in this Complaint are based upon information and belief except for those allegations which pertain to the Plaintiff, the persons, and estate the Plaintiff represents, and Plaintiff's counsel. Plaintiff's information and belief are based upon, inter alia, the investigation conducted to date by Plaintiff and his counsel. Each allegation in this Complaint either has evidentiary support or is likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation and discovery.

2. The acts and omissions of Defendants as set out below are violations of the Tennessee Nursing Home Residents' Rights Act (Tenn. Code Ann. § 68-11-101, et seq.) and its implementing regulations (Nursing Home Rules and Regulations § 1200-8-6, et seq.), as well as the Tennessee Adult Protection Act (Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-101, et seq.).

3. Plaintiff contends that the violation of the statutes and regulations set out in the paragraphs below give rise to a separate cause of action. Moreover, the violation of such statutes and regulations are evidence of negligence and/or medical negligence.

4. When the terms "Defendants" or "Corporate Defendants" are used in this action, such term refers to and includes each named Defendant in this lawsuit.

5. When the term "facility" is used in this action, such terms refer to and mean Golden LivingCenter - Mountain View located at 1360 Bypass Road, Winchester, Franklin County, Tennessee 37398.

6. When it is alleged in this action that Defendants or Corporate Defendants did any act or thing or failed to do any act or thing, it means that the officers, agents, or employees of the designated corporation(s) and/or business entity(ies) respectively performed, participated in, or failed to perform such acts or things while in the course and scope of their employment or agency relationships with Defendants or Corporate Defendants.

II. PLAINTIFF

7. At all times relevant to this cause of action, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., upon information and belief, as well as by a reading of the Facility's nursing home records, was an incompetent adult (both physical and mental) resident of Winchester, Franklin County, Tennessee.

8. As such, Plaintiff affirmatively pleads that any statute of limitations would be tolled until Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. passed away on or about February 4, 2011; further Defendants are estopped from denying such tolling by virtue of its own records.

9. At all times relevant to this cause of action, Freeman M. Frothingham, Jr. was, upon information and belief, an adult resident citizen of Morrison, Warren County, Tennessee. Freeman M. Frothingham, Jr. is the son of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr..

10. Freeman M. Frothingham, Jr. brings this action as the Executor of the Estate of and for the Use and Benefit of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s statutory beneficiaries.

VI. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

A. Facts About Joint Venture/Enterprise/Corporate Control (Based Upon Information and Belief)

33. Corporate Defendants were engaged in a joint venture/enterprise with one other and other unknown, corporately interrelated entities or persons during Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s residency. Defendants shared an interest in the object and purpose of the undertaking for which the Facility was operated. Plaintiff does not yet, and has no reason to know, of the identify of the other corporate entities or persons that Defendants were involved with during all times material to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s residency because such entities or persons have been, upon information and belief, fraudulently, wrongfully and/or improperly concealed from the public, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s and his wrongful death beneficiaries.

34. Corporate Defendants operated a joint venture/enterprise with each other and these yet unknown entities or persons in an effort to streamline and advance their business interests and collectively control the Facility.

35. Corporate Defendants operated collectively as a single business enterprise with each other and these other unidentified entities or persons, carrying out a common business objective and is jointly and severally liable for damages with these other unidentified entities or persons to Plaintiff for injuries caused to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr..

36. Corporate Defendants controlled the operation, planning, management and quality control of the Facility with each other, or had the capacity to control such activities, along with these unknown entities or persons.

37. The fiscal, financial and budgetary decisions, oversight, and policies handed down by the Corporate Defendants over the Facility included, but was not limited to the following: (1) control of marketing; (2) control of human resources department; (3) control of management; (4) management of personnel employed by the facility (5) control of training; (6) control of staffing; (7) creation of policies and procedures including manuals; (8) implementing and carrying out policy and procedures handed down to the facility; (9) control of recruitment and retention; (10) control of rates of pay or compensation; (11) control of federal and state Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement; (12) control of quality care assessment and compliance; (13) control over licensure and certification; (14) control of legal services; (15) control of financial, tax, and accounting policies.

38. The acts, control and authority alleged in the preceding paragraph were driven by the Corporate Defendants' ownership, operation, and control, either directly or through the agency of each other and/or other diverse subordinates, agents, subsidiaries, servants, or employees of the Facility.

39. The Corporate Defendants controlled the management and decision-making concerning the operation of the Facility and exercised control over, or had the capacity to do so, previously authorized and/or subsequently ratified the daily work of the custodial and skilled employees at the Facility.

40. The Corporate Defendants exercised the control alleged, or had the right to control as alleged, in the preceding paragraphs through the following practices:

- a. By providing an Administrator;
- b. By providing other management and supervisory personnel;
- c. By developing and/or providing policies and procedures which governed the staff's performance and delivery of both custodial, non-medical and skilled/medical care to the residents in the facility, including decisions on which residents to admit and/or transfer;
- d. By developing and/or providing policies and procedures which determine which residents should be admitted, including those like Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. who had an existing medical conditions that required constant attention and monitoring;
- e. By providing training to the staff and determining the skill level mix of direct care staff for each shift;
- f. By influencing and/or controlling management and budgetary decisions which directly affected the care, both custodial, direct non-medical care as well as medical skilled nursing care, of the residents at the facility;
- g. By establishing the guidelines and admission criteria for residents and policies for removing or transferring residents after admission;
- h. By intentionally or recklessly failing to purchase comprehensive general liability coverage policy sufficient to satisfy claims like those of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s.

41. The Corporate Defendants' actions and inactions resulted in residents at the Facility at issue, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., from receiving adequate care.

42. The Corporate Defendants were de facto partners with each other and with these unidentified entities and persons and thus liable for their actions by virtue of carrying on a venture for their common benefit, with each party contributing property or services to the venture, and each party with a community of interests in the profits of the venture.

43. The actions of the Corporate Defendants and each of its servants, agents, employees and subordinates, as set forth herein, are imputed to each Corporate Defendant, jointly and severally.

44. At all times relevant to this cause of action, the Corporate Defendants' employees and/or agents were acting within the course and scope of their employment.

45. The Corporate Defendants deviated from the duty of reasonable care owed to residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. in the following ways:

- a. Failing to provide Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. with a safe environment;
- b. Failing to provide food and water;
- c. Failing to properly train and supervise facility employees and staff;
- d. Failing to properly staff the facility with sufficient numbers of professional and non-professional staff to protect Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. from injury and neglect;
- e. Failing to recognize the dangers associated with residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.;
- f. Failing to properly supervise and care for Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.;
- g. Failing to properly budget the facility to provide adequate staffing and supplies;
- h. Failure of corporate and management agents to properly staff, hire, budget and train the facility's employees to ensure that Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. was provided the appropriate level of care and supervision that she required; and, i. Such other acts or omissions that may be proven through discovery or at trial.

B. Facts about the Resident, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

46. Some of the facts giving rise to the claims alleged in this Complaint include, but are not limited to, the failure, during late 2010-early 2011, of the Corporate Defendants to provide adequate and appropriate: assessments, reassessments, care planning, food, water, prevention of fecal impaction, supervision, documentation; hygiene, assistance with activities of daily living, turning and repositioning, prevention of pressure sores, infection, pain assessments, access to necessary health care, and custodial care. Additional injuries include, but are not limited to several large, foul smelling and infected pressure ulcers, as well as fecal impaction and death.

C. Facts relative to Ordinary Negligence & TAPA

47. Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. required assistance with his activities of daily living including the most basic activities such as turning, movement, eating, drinking, ambulating, grooming, and going to the bathroom.

48. Defendants were aware of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s condition and his need for assistance with basic, non-medical, custodial activities of daily living, or reasonably should have been aware and had a duty to meet Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s needs or else discharge him to an appropriate facility that could meet his needs.

49. Defendants failed to consistently provide sufficient numbers of adequately trained and skilled nursing and custodial personnel, and as a result the specific custodial needs of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. could not be met, which accelerated the deterioration of his health and physical condition beyond that caused by the normal aging process.

50. Defendants failed to exercise reasonable care in meeting Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s most basic, non-medical, custodial needs causing injury to him.

51. Defendants failed to adequately assist Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. when needed, resulting in multiple pressure sores and a fecal impaction.

52. Defendants failed to adequately move Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s limbs, resulting in painful pressure sores.

53. The Facility failed to keep the body of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. clean and dry and free of urine and feces, causing great loss of dignity and respect and very poor hygiene and other injuries.

54. The Facility failed to provide adequate food within Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s meal plan and failed to make it available to him and assist him in eating it when needed.

55. The Facility failed to provide adequate water and make it available for Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. to drink and assist him in drinking when needed.

56. Plaintiff alleges malnourishment and dehydration as a fact relative to ordinary negligence because the assistance that Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. needed in this regard was assisting in holding a glass of water so that he could drink and assistance in getting food from his plate into his mouth, none of which constitutes medical care but is basic care.

57. Staffing problems and difficulties at the Facility, as well as resultant resident neglect was reported up the chain of command from the most direct hands-on caregivers.

58. Corporate Defendants controlled the budget and the operation of the Facility recklessly disregarded warnings so as to put priority of themselves and their own profits before residents and their care including as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

59. Corporate Defendants' decisions to prioritize profit over residents at the Facility directly caused humiliating injuries and death to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

60. As a direct and proximate result of the failure to meet his most basic custodial needs, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. suffered from multiple humiliating dignity violations including but not limited to poor hygiene, malnourishment, dehydration, pressure sores, fecal impaction, abuse and neglect, and death.

D. Facts relative to Medical Negligence

61. The Facility was chronically without sufficient numbers of skilled nursing staff to meet the nursing and medical needs of residents including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

62. Without sufficient numbers of adequately trained skilled nursing personnel, the specific nursing and medical needs of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. could not be met, which accelerated the deterioration of his health and physical condition beyond that caused by the normal aging process.

63. Defendants did not meet the skilled nursing and medical needs of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. within the standard of care for a nursing home in the medical community or similar medical community where the facility at issue is located.

64. As a direct and proximate result of the failure to meet the nursing and medical needs of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. he became malnourished and dehydrated, developed infections and pressure sores, and resulted in pain, suffering, permanent impairment, and death.

65. The staffing difficulties and problems in the Facility and the failure to provide skilled nursing care related to the medical treatment were reported and communicated up the chain of command.

66. Defendants' control over the budget and the operation of the Facility recklessly disregarded warnings so as to prioritize their own desire for profits ahead of the needs of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. and other residents like him from receiving quality skilled nursing or medical care.

67. Corporate Defendants' decisions to prioritize profit over residents at the Facility directly caused skilled nursing and medical injury and death to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

VII. CAUSES OF ACTION

A. Count One: Ordinary Negligence

68. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs (excluding those relative to medical negligence), as if fully set out in this claim for ordinary negligence.

69. Defendants owed a duty of reasonable care to residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. to provide custodial care and services and supervision and oversight within accepted standards of care of facilities like the one at issue.

70. Defendants owed a duty to their residents, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., to hire, train, educate; oversee and supervise employees to deliver custodial care and services to residents in a safe, beneficial and dignified manner, as well as to consistently provide sufficient numbers of staff to meet Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s needs.

71. Defendants breached their duty owed to their residents, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., and were negligent in their custodial care and treatment of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. through their acts or omissions relevant to custodial care.

72. Defendants were ordinarily negligent in their custodial care and treatment of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. through their acts or omissions, which include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. Failure to provide Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. with basic and necessary custodial non-medical care and services;
- b. Failure to take reasonable steps to prevent, eliminate, and correct custodial deficiencies and problems;
- c. Failure to protect Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. from abuse and neglect;
- d. Failure to keep Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. clean, comfortable and well-groomed;
- e. Failure to treat Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. with kindness, dignity and respect;
- f. Failure to provide consistently provide sufficient numbers of staff;
- g. Failure to adequately assess, evaluate, and supervise non-nursing direct hands on care personnel so as to ensure that Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. received appropriate custodial care in accordance with Defendant' policies and procedures that they created and implemented and advertised.

73. The injuries Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. suffered were a proximate result of the acts or omissions carried out by Defendant, singularly and in combination with each other.

B. Count Two: TAPA

74. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs (excluding those relative to medical negligence), as if fully set out in these claims for Plaintiff's private action for relief for Defendants' violations of the Tennessee Adult Protection Act ("TAPA"). Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-101 et. seq.

75. At all times during Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s residency at Defendants' Facility, he was an "elderly person" and/or a "disabled person" as defined by TAPA. Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-120.

76. During Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s residency at the Facility, Defendants inflicted physical pain, injury, mental anguish on him or deprived him of the services by a caretaker that was necessary to maintain the health and welfare of an adult, resulting in abuse, neglect or exploitation to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. as defined in Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-102(1) and Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-102(8).

77. The acts or omissions of the Defendants as set forth herein occurred in the Facility or were committed by staff of a Facility licensed or required to be licensed by the board licensing health care facilities under T.C.A. Chapters 68 and 33.

78. Defendants were a "caretaker" of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. because they assumed the responsibility to care for him voluntarily, by contract, or agreement within the meaning of TAPA. Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-102(5)(A).

79. The acts or omissions of Defendants as set forth herein constitute "abuse or neglect" as defined by TAPA.

80. Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s injuries were proximately caused by acts or omissions of custodial services that were necessary to maintain the health and welfare of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

81. Abuse, neglect or exploitation of any adult within the meaning of TAPA is prohibited. Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-117 – § 71-6-119.

82. As an elderly person, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. was a member of the class that TAPA is intended to protect.

83. The injuries suffered by Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. are of the type that TAPA was designed to prevent.

84. As a direct and proximate result of the acts and omissions of the Defendants as set forth above, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. suffered mental anguish, extreme physical pain, disfigurement, physical suffering, and physical injuries which include but are not limited to those described herein, all of which were a result of custodial neglect.

85. Violations of TAPA were the proximate cause of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s injuries for which Plaintiff should be compensated.

C. Count Three: Medical Negligence

86. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs (except for ordinary negligence and TAPA) as if fully set out in this claims for medical malpractice.

87. Plaintiff brings this medical malpractice claim pursuant to the Tennessee Medical Malpractice Act codified at Tenn. Code Ann. § 29-26-115 et seq.

88. Defendant owed a duty to residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. to provide skilled nursing care, treatment, services, and supervision within the recognized standards of acceptable professional practice applicable to them in Franklin County, Tennessee or similar communities.

89. Defendants owed a duty to their residents, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., to render skilled nursing care and services as a reasonably prudent and similarly situated nursing home would rendering, including, but not limited to providing care and services in a safe and beneficial way.

90. Defendants owed a duty to assist all of their residents, including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr., in attaining and maintaining the highest level of physical, mental and psychosocial well-being.

91. Defendants failed to meet the standard of care and violated their duty of care to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. through mistreatment, abuse, neglect and deviations from the applicable standard of care.

92. Reasonably prudent nursing homes, operating under the same or similar conditions, would not have failed to provide this care.

93. Each of the foregoing acts of medical negligence by Defendants were a proximate cause of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s injuries, all of which were foreseeable to Defendants.

94. Defendants' conduct breaching the duties they owed to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. were negligent, grossly negligent, willful, wanton, malicious, reckless and/or intentional.

95. The injuries suffered by Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. were a direct and proximate result of the acts or omissions of Defendants, set forth above, singularly or in combination with each other.

D. Count Four: Negligence Per Se

96. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs, as if fully set out in these claims for negligence per se.

97. Defendants were at all times material to this action operating and controlling a licensed nursing facility subject to rules, statutes and regulations promulgated by the State of Tennessee and the government of the United States.

98. Such rules, statutes and regulations, including but not limited to, Tenn. Code Ann. §68-1-901, et seq. set forth the minimum standards and requirements of care for residents with conditions similar to that of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

99. Such rules, statutes and regulations provide for the treatment and establishment of minimum standards of care for the purpose of preventing danger, harm and injury to individuals like Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr..

100. Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. was in the class of persons intended to be protected by these statutes, rules and regulations which entitled her to adopt as the minimum standards of care for measuring Defendants' conduct and allows him to assert a claim of negligence per se and assert that as a matter of law the conduct of the Defendants amounted to negligence, which proximately caused the severe injury of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.

VIII. DAMAGES

101. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs as if fully set out in these claims for Damages.

102. Plaintiff asserts the above claims on behalf of himself and on behalf of the wrongful death beneficiaries of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann.

103. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages against Defendants in an amount to be determined by the jury, plus costs and other relief to which Plaintiff is entitled.

104. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, recklessness, and acts or omissions of the Defendants and/or their employees and/or agents, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. was caused to suffer significant harms, losses, pain, suffering, physical injury and damages, including but not limited to those listed in this Complaint for Damages.

105. The longevity, scope and severity of Defendants' failures and actions along with their conscious indifferent actions with regard to the welfare and safety of helpless residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. constitute gross negligence, willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or intentional misconduct, malice as such terms are understood in the law.

106. Such conduct was undertaken by Defendants without regard to the health and safety consequences of residents such as Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. that were entrusted to Defendant's care and for pecuniary gain.

107. Such conduct by Defendants evidence such little regard for their duties of care, good faith and fidelity owed to residents including Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. as to raise a reasonable belief that the acts and omissions were the result of conscious indifference to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s rights and welfare.

108. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages and costs, including reasonable expenses, where it is proven Defendants are liable for abuse or neglect as defined in TAPA and reasonable attorneys fees because clear and convincing evidence will establish the abuse and neglect to Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. resulted from intentional, fraudulent or malicious conduct by Defendant. Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-120.

100. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, recklessness, and acts or omissions of the Defendants and/or their employees and/or agents, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. was caused to suffer significant harms, losses, pain, suffering, physical injury and damages, including but not limited to those listed in this Complaint.

101. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence, recklessness, and acts or omissions of the Defendants and/or their employees and/or agents, Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.'s wrongful death beneficiaries were caused to suffer harms, losses, injuries and damages, including but not limited to the loss of guidance, comfort, advice and any other item of injury or damage as provided for by the Tennessee Wrongful Death Act or otherwise under Tennessee law.

IX. JURY DEMAND

102. Pursuant to Rule 38.02 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure and the Tennessee Constitution, Plaintiff demands a jury to try all issues so triable.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff respectfully prays that Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein, that this action be set down for trial by jury, and that Plaintiff recover a judgment against Defendants for damages in such amount as the jury determines fair and reasonable together with prejudgment and post judgment interest, costs of suit, attorneys' fees, and such other relief to which Plaintiff shows herself entitled and specifically requests the following:

103. That proper process and service be issued as provided by law;
104. That Plaintiff be awarded compensatory damages in an amount to be determined by the jury but in excess of this Court's jurisdiction;
105. That a judgment in favor of Plaintiff for punitive damages against Defendants in an amount to be determined by the jury sufficient to punish Defendant for its egregious conduct and to deter Defendant and others from repeating such atrocious conduct;
106. That Plaintiff receive all general and special damages caused by the alleged conduct of Defendants;
107. That Plaintiff be awarded his attorneys' fees and costs of litigating this case, including attorneys' fees as specifically provided for in Tenn. Code Ann. § 71-6-101, et seq.;
108. That Plaintiff be awarded any discretionary costs in this cause; and,
109. That Plaintiff be awarded any and all other relief that the Court deems appropriate.

Dated April 27 2012.

As required by T.C.A. § 29-26-122(a)(2)(E), I have attached a HIPAA-compliant medical authorization authorizing you to obtain complete medical records from Golden LivingCenter-Mountain View, which has been executed by Mr. Frothingham, Jr. as Exhibit B. Additionally, the Probate Court Order is attached as Exhibit C. If Golden LivingCenter-Mountain View does not accept this release for any reason, please contact us, and we will use our best efforts to execute a form acceptable to them that will permit you to obtain complete medical records concerning Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr. from that facility.

Neither this Notice nor the medical authorization waives the common law physician patient privilege concerning your care and treatment of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr.: We expect that you will not communicate with any person other than your attorney about your care and treatment of Freeman M. Frothingham, Sr..

We believe that this letter complies with the letter and spirit of T.C.A. § 29-26-121. If you believe it is deficient in any way, please promptly let us know and any defect will be promptly cured. If we do not promptly hear from you, we will assume that you believe this letter complies with the law.

Sincerely,

Joseph K. Dugman

IN THE PROBATE COURT OF COFFEE COUNTY, TENNESSEE AT MANCHESTER*IN RE: FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, SR.
DeceasedFREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, JR.
PetitionerFILED
CHANCERY COURT, COFFEE CO., TN
NO. 2011 PR 137
SEP 30 2011
TIME 9:29 AM/PMORDER TO PROBATE

This cause came on to be heard on the 30 day of Sept., 2011, before the Honorable L. CRAIG JOHNSON, CHANCELLOR, upon the petition of FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, JR., that a paper-writing purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, SR., deceased, be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be issued to the Petitioner.

1. Petitioner's Identification. Petitioner is the son of the Decedent, FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, SR. Petitioner is nominated in the Executor clause section of decedents' said Will to serve as Executor. Petitioner is over the age of 18 and hereby consents to act as Executor. Petitioner's name and residence address are as follows:

FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, JR.
1054 CANEY BRANCH ROAD
MORRISON, TENNESSEE 37357

2. Decedent Identification: The Decedent, FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, SR., died on February 4, 2011 in Rutherford County, Tennessee, at the age of 83 years. The Decedent's place of residence at the time of his death was 106 Highland Drive, Tullahoma, Tennessee.
3. Decedent's Will. Among the Decedent's papers, Petitioner located a paper writing of two pages bearing the date November 5, 2003, purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of the Decedent. Also attached is a one page affidavit executed by the witnesses of the Decedent's will, Gina Blair and Traci L. Jones, attesting to their witnessing of Decedent's Will on November 5, 2003. A copy of the executed paper writing is attached as Exhibit A to this petition. Petitioner has made a thorough search for wills and codicils signed by the Decedent other and later than said writing but has found no other or later Will or Codicil.

4. Will Witnesses. The attesting witnesses to the Decedent's Will are Gina Blair and Traci L. Jones. The affidavit of each such attesting witness is attached to said paper writing, and Petitioner presents said affidavits to this Court in support of this Petition.

5. Beneficiaries of Estate.

a) Specific Bequests. Norman M. Frothingham.

b) Residue. The residue under the Decedent's Will passes to Geraldine Longmire, Freeman M. Frothingham, Jr., Joseph U. Frothingham, John F. Frothingham, Virginia Nan Chappell, Sandra J. Street, and Norman M. Frothingham.

c) Heirs at law. The persons who would be entitled to the Decedent's property under the Tennessee statutes of intestate succession are Petitioner's children:

Virginia Nan Chappell
281 Orchard Lane
McMinnville, Tennessee 37110

John F. Frothingham
407 North 10th Street
Collinville, Oklahoma 74021

Norman M. Frothingham
106 Highland Drive
Tullahoma, Tennessee 37388

Freeman Frothingham, Jr.
P.O. Box 382
Mortison, Tennessee 37357

Geraldine Frothingham Longmire
11709 Old Tullahoma Road
Tullahoma, Tennessee 37388

Joseph U. Frothingham
15 Garrison Drive
Carterville, Georgia 30120

Sandra J. Street
506 Timberland Drive
Estill Springs, Tennessee 37330

6. Disability of Minors. No direct devisee or legatee is a minor or under a disability.
7. Waiver of Inventory and Bond. The Executor's clause of Decedent's Will waives the requirement that any person designated therein to serve as Personal Representative of the estate be required to file an inventory with any court or furnish bond with respect to the performance of such person's duties.
8. Petitioner's Statement. Petitioner is not aware of any instrument revoking the document being offered for probate and believes that the document being offered for probate is the Decedent's true and whole last will and testament. Petitioner further believes said writing is duly signed, declared, published and attested.

THEREFORE IT IS ORDERED, AJUDGED, AND DECREED:

1. That said paper writing of three pages (including one page affidavit) bearing the date November 3, 2003, presented to this Court in support of this petition, be admitted to probate as and for the true and whole Last Will and Testament of the Decedent, FREEMAN M. FROTHINGHAM, SR., and that the Clerk of this Court be directed to file and record same;
2. Petitioner be appointed as Executor of the Decedent's estate, to serve without bond and without the requirement of filing an inventory or accounting;
3. Letters testamentary be issued to Petitioner based upon him taking the oath as required by law; and
4. Petitioner be granted such additional relief as the Court may deem proper under the circumstances.

Submitted this the 30th day of Sept., 2011, in Coffee County, Tennessee.
